

Pastor's Biography

Chibuike Azuoru is an ordained minister of God. A call he answered in 1996, after so many years of serving the Lord in various capacities in the Body of Christ. Born of The Apostolic Church parents, he gave his life to Christ at an early age and have been serving the Lord ever since.

He is the founder and Senior Pastor of Christ the King Christian Center (CKCC) Baton Rouge, Louisiana. A church where Jesus Christ is the King and where the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ is preached without compromise – hence the motto of the Church “You Shall know the truth and the truth shall set you free”.

Chibuike, was ordained by Pastor J.D. Brown of Faith Chapel Church of God Baton Rouge, who noticed the calling of God in Chibuike and advised that he should be ordained. Chibuike Azuoru went through the training and guidance of Pastor J.D. Brown, completed his Theological papers and passed the Examination and interviews of the ordaining board of the Church of God and was ordained as a Pastor in 1996. He served under the leadership of Pastor J.D. Brown for two years, before informing pastor J.D. Brown of a burden in his heart to open up a church to better serve the South East part of Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Pastor J.D. Brown gave him his blessings and so was the birth of Christ the King Christian Center – An International Christian Worship Church.

He is originally from Nigeria, but now resides with his wife and four children in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. He was the founder of a home fellowship that later became a part of the African Christian fellowship in 1992. He served the African Christian Fellowship Baton Rouge Chapter as president for 7 years and later became the South Regional President of the African Christian Fellowship. A position he held for 6 years. He also served the ACF board as the Treasurer (2007-2009) In 2009 -2011 as Director of Legal and Structure and currently serves as the Board Treasurer, 2011 - 2013.
