

Pastor Friday Wada

Friday Wada was born and raised up in a christian home. I grew up in a Pentecostal church doctrine as a way of life with then Qua Iboe Church of Nigeria and ECWA church.

In 1996, I joined the branch of Living Faith Church (Winners' Chapel) in Kano, as a member.

I moved to Lagos in 1997 and continued with the Church, now under the direct ministration of the Presiding Bishop, Dr David Oyedipo. I count it a privilege to witness the building from the scratch of the 50,000 seater capacity church auditorium reputed to be the largest church auditorium in the world in Canaanland, Otta, Nigeria built debt-free less than one year. I was posted to Abuja just immediately after the dedication of the statuary in 1999, and continued with the Church branch in Abuja until our migration to the United States by late 2002. I am a graduate of Word of Faith Bible Institute. I served as Assistant Cell Leader and a member of the church workers Committee.

I joined Christ the King Christian Center in January 2003,as a member, promoted as an Elder in 2005, and as an Assistant Pastor in 2007. My family counts it as an honor and privilege to be part of the great things the Lord is doing in the Church.

I am married to Bridget, and the Lord has blessed us with five children.
